

ROYAL CANADIAN MARINE
SEARCH & RESCUE
Saving Lives on the Water

Part C - CRIMINAL RECORD CHECK

Request for Criminal Record Check

This certifies that _____ is applying to become a volunteer member of Royal Canadian Marine Search & Rescue (RCM-SAR), a not-for-profit marine search and rescue and SAR prevention organization. All members require a criminal record check as a condition of membership.

Volunteers with our organization have direct contact with the public through marine search and rescue activities, special events, and boating safety activities including parades, festivals, vessel courtesy checks, and school visits.

Our public outreach includes specific curriculum aimed at children ages 4 to 12. Some volunteer positions within our organization also include teaching, training, and working with youth aged 13-18.

Our head office is in Sooke, and our volunteer members serve at more than 40 stations throughout British Columbia. Our mailing address is:

Royal Canadian Marine Search & Rescue
6040 East Sooke Rd.
Sooke, B.C. V9Z 0Z7

Phone: 778-352-1780 or 1-800-665-4757

As a charity, we appreciate the waiver of any fees associated with this check.

Sincerely,

John G. Johnston
Manager, Human Resources
Royal Canadian Marine Search & Rescue (RCM-SAR)

Note to applicant: Please take this letter to your local police department. Results should be send to your Station Leader or RCM-SAR Head Office, attention Human Resources Manager.